Garvin County Courthouse Receives Grant For Upgrades

Sen. Johnnie Crutchfield and Rep. Wes Hilliard announced that Garvin County recently received a state grant to make necessary upgrades to the county's courthouse.

The Oklahoma Department of Commerce/ Office of Community Development awarded the county a $150,000 Community Development Block Grant (CDBG). The funds will be used to improve handicap accessibility in the courthouse including the installation of a new elevator.

The CDBG Community Revitalization program helps eligible cities, towns and counties with improvements that have been identified in their strategic plan. The strategic plan takes into consideration the goals and needs specific to the community, and encourages an increase in the quality of life in the community.

Each year the Oklahoma Department of Commerce makes CDBG funds available to eligible incorporated towns, cities and counties. Funding is provided by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), through a competitive cycle process that utilizes an established set of threshold criteria that all applicants must meet.

The project will benefit more than 6,400 residents.

Mote Receives Doctor Of Osteopathic Medicine Degree

Matthew Brant Mote of Lindsay was among 79 graduates of the Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences College of Osteopathic Medicine who received a Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine (D.O.) degree May 9.

His parents are Dennis and Kay Mote of Lindsay. He and wife Dion are the parents of Madeline and Katherine. Dr. Mote is a Captain in the United States Army and will study in a family medicine residency at Fort Benning, Ga.

Osteopathic medical schools emphasize training students to be primary care physicians. Providing physicians to rural and under-served Oklahoma is core to the college's mission. More than 2,300 osteopathic physicians have graduated from the college since 1977. There are currently 25 colleges of osteopathic medicine, and three branch campuses that offer the doctor of osteopathic medicine (D.O.) degree.

Graduate degrees in biomedical sciences and forensic sciences also were conferred. Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences in Tulsa offers programs in osteopathic medicine, biomedical sciences and forensic sciences. Since its beginnings more than 30 years ago, OSU-CHS has grown to offer nine graduate degrees. On-campus programs, distance learning and OSU partnerships train osteopathic physicians, research scientists and health care professionals with an emphasis on serving rural and under-served Oklahoma. More information about OSU Center for Health Sciences and OSU Medicine is available at HYPERLINK "<http://www.healthsciences.okstate.edu/>" \o "<http://www.healthsciences.okstate.edu/>" www.healthsciences.okstate.edu.

Bradley Receives Grant For New City Park

Sen. Anthony Sykes and Rep. Lisa J. Billy announced that the town of Bradley recently received a state grant for the construction of a community park and the purchase of park equipment.

The Oklahoma Department of Commerce/ Office of Community Development awarded a $60,000 Community Development Block Grant -Rural Economic Action Plan (CDBG-REAP) to construct a community park on a .45 acre lot that will include a steel pavilion, basketball court, two playground sets, volleyball court, drinking fountain, one set of bleachers and fencing.

"The citizens and families of Bradley will greatly benefit from this project," said Sykes. "It's important that all communities have a park where citizens can exercise, relax and spend time with their friends and family."

The CDBG-REAP set-aside is a newly developed program that partners with the Substate Planning Districts (SSPDs) to make a greater impact on each district by matching CDBG funds and REAP funds, dollar for dollar. The CDBG-REAP set-aside can fund a broad array of projects. Some of the eligible activities include water/wastewater, fire protection, streets, housing demolition and senior citizen centers.

"As a mother, I know this park will be a wonderful place for families to gather and play together and that is good for Oklahoma," said Rep. Lisa J. Billy.

Each year the Oklahoma Department of Commerce makes CDBG funds available to eligible incorporated towns, cities and counties. Funding is provided by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), through a competitive cycle process that utilizes an established set of threshold criteria that all applicants must meet.

The project will benefit nearly 185 residents.

New Polling Place Locator Now Available

State Election Board Secretary Michael Clingman recently announced the launch of a new polling place locator feature on the State election Board's website. "The polling place locator may help thousand of Oklahomans verify the location of their precinct polling places for the election upcoming on July 29," Clingman said

The polling place locator is available at HYPERLINK "<http://www.elections.state.ok.us>" www.elections.state.ok.us in the "Frequently Asked Questions" section and also in the "Voters Registration" section.

Registered voters enter their last name, date of birth, and Zip Code and the locator produces a list of possible matches. The voter selects his or her name from the list and receives the name and address of the assigned polling place as well as a list of his or her Congressional, State Senate, State House, and County Commissioner Districts.

In the event that the locator is unable to match the voter's information, the voter should call his or her local County Election Board office directly. The locator also provides the appropriate contact information.

"The polling Place locator is a great tool for Oklahoma voters who just need to verify their correct place to vote on election day," Clingman said. "Voters can access the polling place locator from any computer connected to the internet at any time, including on Election Day when it may be difficult to reach their local County Election Board office by telephone.

Fifth Annual —

Murray Ranch Spring Round-Up

The fifth annual Murray Ranch Spring Round-up, hosted by the Lindsay Community Historical Society, is set for this weekend, Sat., Jun. 7, according to Shaun Bridwell, the group's president.

The event begins at 5:30 p.m. with a pork barbeque dinner served on the lawn of the beautiful 127-year-old Murray-Lindsay Mansion.

Proceeds from the event go toward upkeep of the Mansion and other Lindsay Community Historical Society projects.

"Entertainment for the evening will be provided by Les Gilliam, the official Oklahoma Balladeer. Mr. Gilliam is brought to Lindsay by the Lindsay Civic Arts Association. Bring your lawn chairs and join your friends and family for an evening of old-fashioned entertainment, great barbeque, and delicious homemade cobbler." Mr. Bridwell continued.

The Murray-Lindsay Mansion is located south of Lindsay on Hwy. 76, then west of Erin Springs.

Those needing more information may call Mr. Bridwell at 405-756-6502.

Lindsay's Mayor Named To OCOM

Todd Hinckley

Mayor Todd Hinckley of Lindsay has been accepted as a member of the Oklahoma Conference of Mayors (OCOM). With this membership, the mayor joins a prestigious list of community leaders who have made a commitment to work through OCOM to improve their own communities as well as the conditions facing all cities and towns throughout the state and nation. The Oklahoma Conference of Mayors was formed in 1991 as a non-partisan organization to represent the concerns and views of the body of the state's mayors.

OCOM President Chuck Mills, Mayor of Shawnee, wishes to extend congratulations to Oklahoma mayors on their membership in this esteemed organization. "Being a mayor, you are expected to keep up with local and state level issues. We at OCOM can help with problem solving and provide additional training and networking opportunities to make our mayor's more efficient and effective leaders for their communities," Mayor Mills stated.

"As OCOM president, I invite you to take advantage of your membership in OCOM and utilize the network of experienced mayors and the Oklahoma Municipal League staff in providing possible solutions to your local problems. Also please make plans to attend the most educational and entertaining OCOM event of the year, the OCOM Summer Retreat. This years retreat will be July 24 - 26 in Weatherford, Oklahoma. With all of us working together we can insure that our communities and the state of Oklahoma are great places to live," Mills added.

Madden Announces Candidacy

Andy Madden has announced his candidacy for McClain County Commissioner District 2.

Madden is the son of the late Andrew (Andy) Madden and Lorene Madden, and has been a lifelong resident of McClain County and the Criner area. He and his wife Tina have three sons, Johnathan, Joshua, and Nicholas, all of whom attended Washington Schools. Madden has been an active sponsor and supporter of the Dibble and Washington School FFA and 4-H programs.

He has been in farming and heavy equipment operation for the past 25 years, building roads, and doing dirt construction. He feels that he has the experience and knowledge to perform the duties of Commissioner for all of the citizens of District 2. He will work to improve the roads in District 2 and would greatly appreciate your vote.

If anyone has any comments or questions, feel free to call him at 405-520-2101.

Matchbook Memories

by Dr. Jerry G. Nye

D-DAY REMEMBERED

Sixty-four years ago this week, Allied Forces stormed ashore at Normandy in Operation Overlord. American troops landed on Omaha Beach and Utah Beach. In the face of withering German gunfire, American troops waded ashore and crossed the barren beach to establish a foothold on Fortress Europe. Thousands died that first day. Many more thousands would die in France, Belgium, the Netherlands, and Germany before Germany surrendered unconditionally on May 2, 1945. Although World War II raged on for nearly a year after D-Day, that historic landing was the beginning of the end for the Nazi regime.

The D-Day invasion of Normandy was the largest invasion in history. It will never be surpassed. On D-Day, the Allies landed around 156,000 troops in Normandy. The American forces landed numbered 73,000: 23,250 on Utah Beach, 34,250 on Omaha Beach, and 15,500 airborne troops. In the British and Canadian sector, 83,115 troops were landed on Gold Beach, Juno Beach, and Sword Beach, and 7,900 airborne troops. It seems almost impossible that so many men and so much equipment and arms could be landed in such a relatively small area. The planning, the coordination, the logistics, and the execution of such a complex operation is almost inconceivable. But what is even more inconceivable is the courage of those men who faced death to carry out their mission.

Omaha Beach took the heaviest toll on American forces. The US 1st and 29th Divisions suffered around 2,000 casualties, including both dead and wounded, in that first day on Omaha Beach. After the successful landing on Normandy Beach, the battle for the Normandy peninsula would continue until August 14th when the Allies drove the Germans back into the interior of France. In the entire Normandy Campaign, approximately 30,000 Americans were killed. The D-Day landing has become synonymous with courage and valor. When we think of the Greatest Generation, we often think first of those Americans who waded ashore at Normandy.

Those brave men who landed at Normandy were the vanguard for thousands of other warriors who followed them. The 45th Infantry Division came into South France. Other units came through other French ports and spread across Western Europe, pushing the Germans backward to their own soil. Hundreds of thousands of Americans fought and died before Germany surrendered. From June 6, 1944 to May 2, 1945, Americans fought their way across Europe. Their brothers in arms fought their way across the Pacific, battling the Japanese in island warfare as vicious as the war in Europe. Together, these men left a legacy that we still celebrate today, more than six decades later.

The ranks of these graying warriors are growing thinner with the passing of each day. Last week, we paid tributes to these warriors in cemeteries across America. As the Lindsay American Legion Ball-Smith Post 23 conducted Memorial Day ceremonies at six cemeteries, several of the Honor Guard were World War II veterans. They were paying tribute to their brothers in arms, who had shared the same experiences. As the years pass by, the lists of names on the memorials le Anghen.

The pictures that accompany this article were taken by my friends, L.B. and Ina Hoyle. These pictures show the World War II Memorial in Washington, D.C. This monument is a beautiful tribute to the men and women who served in that greatest war to preserve Democracy and the freedom of all people.

As we remember D-Day on June 6, we should all pause to give thanks to the men who fought there and in other battles around the world. The D-Day veterans and their brothers in arms held the world on their shoulders to preserve our freedom. Let us always remember. We are here today because of what they did in those perilous times.

American Legion Auxiliary Makes Pocket Flags

The American Legion-Ball Auxiliary recently completed POCKET FLAG PROJECT for the troops overseas. The project was conceived in 2001 by a Cub Scout leader in Colorado after meeting Boy Scout leaders who were veterans and served in Vietnam and the Gulf War. Both of them carried small, folded flags in their left breast pockets. She thought the project would be a way for the boys to appreciate patriotism and understand flag etiquette. Following flag etiquette, the flags are folded into tiny triangles, and accompanying the pocket-sized flags is a card thanking them for their service. The project has now expanded all across America with the goal of getting these pocket flags into the pockets of all active military serving on the front lines as signs of patriotism from home.

When approached about participating in the project, the ladies responded with, "Of course, we will do what we can to help." They weren't sure just how they could get it all done (folding 300 flags seemed like a daunting task), but they jumped in with both feet. The flags and zip-lock bags were purchased through the Pocket Flag Project headquarters. The group was able to get additional information and instructions at the project website. They downloaded a template to create the cards to accompany the flags. On each card is a quote, "A flag for your pocket so you can always carry a little piece of home. We are praying for you and we are proud of you. Thank you for defending our country and our freedom." Space was allowed below the quote for the name and address of our organization so the men and women would know who sent the flags.

With the help of the gentleman of the Ball-Smith Unit, the ones who didn't already know how quickly learned the proper way of folding the flag. Several wrote personal notes on the back of the cards. Much to the group's surprise in a relatively short period of time, they had 300 tiny flag triangles and cards packaged in small plastic bags ready to be shipped to those who are on the front lines. Completing this project made them all feel good that they could show our military men and women how much they mean to us and how proud we are of them for their service.

We encourage our fellow Americans to get involved in this project. The following information is provided for any organization that would like to participate in or get information about this worthwhile project.

Golden Trend OHCE Meets

Golden Trend OHCE met in the Senior Citizen Center for their May meeting. Wilda Freeling, president, called the meeting to order and the flag salute was led by Kenetha Newey. Lorraine Edwards read the quote and Susan Kroth gave the tips and bits.

The secretary called the roll and each member answered with her favorite herb and how she uses it. Members attending were Lorraine Edwards, Wilda Freeling, Pat Geddes, Susan Kroth, Kenetha Newey, Carol Kelley, Dorene Somers, and Joyce Webb.

Minutes of the April meeting were read and the treasurer's balance was read.

A donation from the club to Donetta Cothren was voted on. The $50 for research on cancer was mad on the motion by Carol Kelley, seconded by Joyce Webb. A bill to the monument was also presented and voted to be paid.

The District meeting was in Duncan March 28. Five members went and enjoyed the groups that were presented.

Spring council in Pauls Valley was in May and all members were encouraged to go.

Lorraine Edward has inherited some double mil. We used to make lap robes and whatever else the county needs. There is a work shop on March 11. All need to attend.

Cell phones were discussed. Carol Kelley made the motion, seconded by Dorene Somers. We collect what we can.

An interesting program on herbs and how to use them was presented. We can do so much for our foods with them.

Our hostess served cake and drinks. Very good cake, all wanted the recipe.

The hostess gift was won by Pat Geddes. The next meeting will be June 3, 2008.

Friendship Club Meets

The Friendship Club met in the home of Carrie Schwartz for their May meeting. Joy Everett hosted the meeting and called the meeting to order.

The flag salute was led by Carrie Schwartz and Emma Cantrell led the Creed. Thelma Love led the group in a song and prayer.

Roll call was answered by members Joy Everett, Emma Cantrell, Wanda Reeves, Betty White, Thelma Love, Carrie Schwarz, and Lois Knapp. The group answered by telling to their firs earliest memories.

A devotional was given by Betty White from Chrys Howard's book "Hugs for Grandmas." Grandmas are a model of hope to the young by your decisions, and your accomplishments. Hope means to long for, anticipate, and invision. So the future of our grandchildren depends on the way you live and most importantly the decisions you make to live as a believer of Jesus so they have the chance to follow that path. Just as God gives us hope you also are a hope giver. Romans 15:13

Minutes of the April meeting were given by Lois Knapp and Carrie Schwarz gave the treasurer's report.

New business for June was discussed. The Club will be serving lunch at two auctions June 7 and June 21.

A program was given by Wanda Reeves from the book, "Bud and Me". A true story about the adventures of two brothers, Temple and Bud Abernathy at the young age of five and nine years of age. In the early days of the twentieth century the boys took many trips of expedition and discovery alone across the entire American continent.

They experienced many unfamiliar sights and sounds as they traveled through a country of wild animals, Indians, and bandits over mountains and deserts. They also experienced new inventions of the day such as autos, airplanes, and motorcycles.

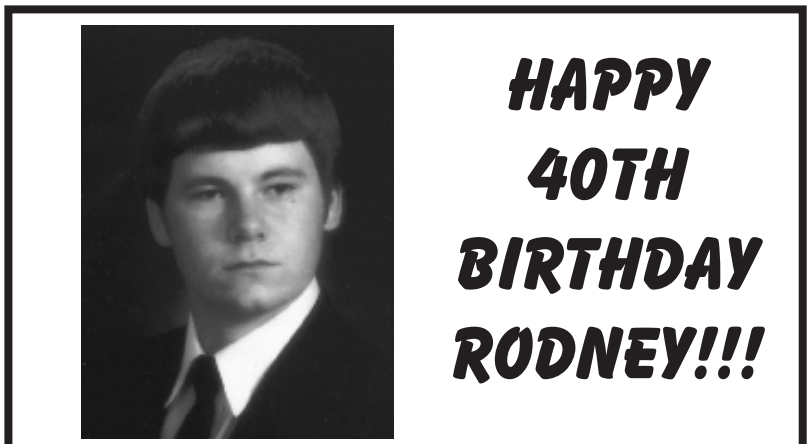

They had the encouragement and love of their famous father, "Catch -Em-Alive" Jack Abernathy, a U.S. marshal from Oklahoma.

This was a very fascinating book.

Emma Cantrell won the door prize.

The meeting was adjourned and hostess served refreshments of apple dumplings with ice cream and platters of fresh fruit.

The June meeting will be in the home of Joy Everett.

Erin Springs OHCE Meets

The Erin Springs OHCE group met Tuesday, May 27 in the home of Mary Robertson. The meeting was called to order at 3 p.m. by president Allene Lindsey.

Mary Robertson led the group in singing. Shirley Caldwell led the flag salute and Erna Tannehill led in the repeating of the club creed.

Mary Robertson gave a devotional from the sixth chapter of Matthew.

Roll call was answered by relating how the members celebrated Memorial Day. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by Audra Dennis.

Erna Tannehill gave the Erin Springs cemetery report. The group wants to say a special thank you to Ruby Gosnell for filling in at the reception pavilion during the holiday weekend. Also, thank you, Robert Ellithorp, for picking up the paint and Willie Slay for painting the fence and pavilion.

Sue Duncan gave a report on cookbook inventory and sales. Sally Scott reminded the group of the birthday party at Lindsay Manor Nursing Home. The club members will serve as hostesses on Wednesday

May 28.

Shirley Caldwell, Allene Lindsey, Oleda Flud, and Sally Scott attended the council meeting May 21.

As always, the luncheon was full of tasty goodies and the table arrangements, done by Maysville and Paoli groups were appealing.

Members of all Garvin County Clubs are asked to be thinking of leader, educational, topics for 2009 and pass ideas on to Joyce Cantwell.

The Erin Springs group stayed for the afternoon program by Susanne Blake, on "Create A Sunlit Path For Your Life", which was inspiring.

Julia Murray brought the lesson in the form of enticing spices and ideas for their uses. Meeting was adjourned.

After all these pleasant aromas, everyone was ready for the goodies Mary Robertson had waiting for them.

Members present were: Shirley Caldwell, Sue Duncan, Oleda Flud, Allene Lindsey, Julia Murray, Mary Robertson, Sally Scott, Erna Tannehill, and Audra Dennis.

The next meeting will be June 10 at 1:30 p.m. in the home of Sally Scott.

Jeanaye Perkey Attends Student Convention

ISC (International Student Convention) 2008 is now history, but oh, how marvelous a piece of history it is for Jeanaye Perkey, daughter of Larry and Pearline Perkey. It was an exciting week of meeting people from all over the world.

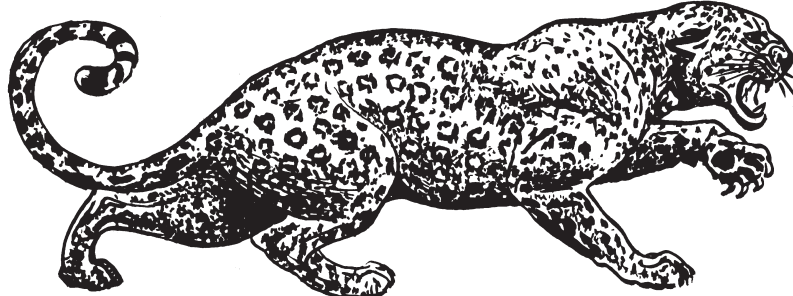

Jeanaye's roommate was from South Africa, and there were many from places like Australia, Haiti, Great Britain, Canada, Mexico, and even the countries of China, Hong Kong, and Japan were represented.

There were over twenty-four hundred people in attendance, and some truly competed within this many people, tough, but Jeanaye still brought home three medals: winning sixth in the needle and thread category with a coat and skirt that she made, she and her friends, Sarah VanWinkle, Janice Taliaferro, Caleb Volk, and Joe Handy won sixth with their small ensemble and she along with the school's other students won fifth with their large ensemble.

Jeanaye is a junior at Word of Life Academy at Dibble, OK and wishes to thank everyone that helped sponsor her way both to the regionals and the International Competitions.

Jeanaye's dad, Larry, went along as the male sponsor and has some great stories to tell. If you want to hear about the most amusing one, ask him why he's now known as "Humpty Dumpty."

ECU

A total of 61 baccalaureate-educated nurses ready to enter the workforce made up the May 2008 graduating class of Registered Nurses at East Central University.

The class included 49 generic students, those who completed an eight-semester program, including five semesters of clinical courses, to receive a bachelor's degree with a major in nursing, and 12 RN to BSN graduates.

RN to BSN students already are licensed registered nurses with an associate degree or diploma in nursing who want to earn a bachelor's degree in nursing. They can complete the required courses at night in 12 months.

"As the shortage of RNs continues to grow," noted Dr. Joseph T. Catalano, RN, chair of the Department of Nursing, "the nursing faculty and I will continue to work hard to meet the projected shortages in our region of the state."

The National Council of State Boards of Nursing estimates there will be a shortage of 800,000 RNs by 2020. In Oklahoma, the shortage is projected to be 3,100 RNs by 2012.

According to data collected by the Oklahoma State Board of Nursing, ECU has the second largest baccalaureate degree nursing program in the state by the number of enrolled majors.

From the first graduating class of 20 nurses in 1974, ECU's program has continued to grow. In 2002, the program was expanded to the Southeastern Oklahoma State University campus in Durant and this year the first class of students was admitted to the ECU@Ardmore program.

"We are the only baccalaureate nursing program in the whole southeastern quadrant of the state," Catalano said. "Our service area covers over 14,000 square miles, not including the students we draw from north Texas which also doesn't have a baccalaureate program."

A pinning ceremony was held for the nursing graduates at the First Baptist Church in Ada after the cap and gown graduation at ECU on May 10. Catalano said the second ceremony is held because the nursing program is unique among other degrees offered by ECU. It not only is an academic degree, he said, but also an entrance into a profession.

"The pin the nursing graduates receive is akin to the badges that police officers or firemen receive when they graduate from basic training," he said. "It indicates that they belong to a specially educated professional group and is a symbol of their legal status granted by state licensure."

"The graduates of the ECU nursing program are noted for their knowledge and the high quality care they provide to patients in a multitude of clinical settings," he added. "Our graduates are heavily recruited by hospitals and health organizations all over the state and throughout the southern plains region."

For more information about the ECU nursing program, call 888-691-0001, e-mail ssibble@ecok.edu or go to the ECU webpage - ecok.edu/nursing.

OSU

A total of 3,897 students were named to the spring 2008 honor rolls at Oklahoma State University in Stillwater, including 1,299 students who received all "A" grades and were named to the President's Honor Roll.

Full-time undergraduate students who completed 12 or more hours with a grade point average of 4.00 and with no incomplete grades were placed on the President's Honor Roll. Students who completed 12 or more hours with a grade point average of 3.50 or higher, with no incomplete grade or grade below a "C," were placed on the Dean's Honor Roll.

Part-time undergraduate students who have accumulated at least 12 semester credit hours during the most recent consecutive enrollments at OSU, with no incomplete grade or grade below a "C," were also named to the honor rolls.

Grades earned through correspondence classes may not be included in meeting the minimum enrollment or grade point average required for an honor roll.

Student names are listed by the towns they have designated as their hometowns. A complete in-state, out-of-state, and other countries honor roll lists are online at <http://osu.okstate.edu/honorroll/>

Down the WALLVILLE ROAD with Al Hunt

Turn off the highways and let's go down the Wallville Road. Now, I want to tell you of the dog days of summer. I know, I know you're probably saying "We ain't even there yet." That may be so, but I'm referring to another dog day down Wallville Road, next to a milk cow and a laying hen, dogs were the animal of choice. Charley and Callie Cox moved into downtown Wallville with dogs Tippi and Tom. Now, these dogs shared room and board with the Coxs and after Charley died Callie didn't lack for company with her dogs and granddogs you understand. There were enough dog hairs in the home to fill a good size mattress. Well enough said about that. My Uncle Johnny and wife Julia was precious to us and we enjoyed visiting with them. If you weren't afraid to get out of your car they always had some vicious acting dogs guarding the place and didn't like strangers.

Now, cousin Jimmy Ray spared a little dogs life. He found him in a dilapidated house south and east of Wallville. He brought him home in a cracker box, if I'm lying, I'm dying. Now, he became a cute little dog, but Grannie Malone passed by each day on her daily walk and carried a big stick to shoo away varmints and what not and the dog they called Rusty got mean and you learned to keep your distance if you wanted to keep all your fingers. Well, there's a lot of dog stories I want to share with you some I dated, but that's better left alone. So, stay close and let's see what's been going on down the Wallville Road.

The grouch of the south with greetings from Wallville Road. Legend #809.

Alert-alert-Grannie Shirley Bittle became a grandmother again with the birth of her daughter Debbie Moore's twins. Can you believe I overlooked it, well excuse me. Also her grandson, Justin and wife Rachel Brown had a baby boy, making her a great-grandmother too.

Marie Hadfield, daughter of Stanley Work, granddaughter of Jonnie and A.G. McCaleb of Hughes and Lige and Katharine Work of Lindsay lost her husband Johnny (28), recently in tragic car accident, our thoughts are with the family.

Wedding bells will be ringing June 14, 2008 for Kaci Martin and Brandon Sapp, 4:30 p.m., 1st Baptist Church in Lindsay. They're the children of Mr. and Mrs. Ricky Martin of Lindsay, and Loretta Sapp.

Congratulations are in store for Jonathan and Rachel Taylor at the birth of their son Jonathan Blaine this March 30, 2008 at the Norman Regional Hospital. Now the fun begins.

The Wallville Veteran's Committee salutes Mr. O.C. Estes, 1920-2008, enlisted in U.S. Navy Air Corps in 1942 as an aviation cadet. His training included Civilian Pilot Training at Wiley Post Airport in OKC, Navigation School. He was commissioned an Ensign and served as a Pilot of the PBY Multi-Engine Aircraft. He was stationed at Kaneoke Bay, Oahu and Whidbey Island, Seattle WA. Discharged in 1945 with the rank of Lt. J.G. Another proud veteran.

Winner of the roses, David and Evon Donahom, 34 years of traveling along singing a song side by side. This June 7. Congratulations old friends.

Party time for Brandi Waite on the 6, Kirk Palmer on the 6, and the old water jack Al Jacks on the 6, Miss Sue Duncan parties on the 7, happy birthday Vronika Walters on the 9, the same day Bradley Mayhan parties big time, Samuel Hines birthday is the 8, and Piper Quinn's birthday is the 7, and on this closing note Hali McClish and Noah McClish share the 12 on the birthday trail. This is the Owl Man until next week.

Hughes School reunion June 28, 2008, all you Bulldogs come on down, 5:30 p.m., Assembly of God Fellowship Hall, Maysville, OK. $10 at the door. Sandra Adams, president; Carolyn Lewis, secretary, and Judy Holden, the star of the show. Come one-come all, 40th anniversary of the closing of old Hughes.

Happy anniversary Justin and Rachel Brown celebrate #5 this June 6. Hope they have a great day.

At last word Rick and Lesa Jones celebrate anniversaries on June 9. Rick once lived down the Wallville Road, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Jones.

Hats off to all our friends, veterans, and our many readers. Have a great summer. Show a little kindness, everywhere you go.

Arthur and Jonnie McCaleb have just returned from a little anniversary trip to Texas. Winding up in the ballpark in Arlington. We're glad they had a safe trip.

Several from the Wallville Church enjoyed attending the annual Blanchard camp meeting May 27 to June 1, held south of Blanchard near Cole Road. For over 50 years, it was held in downtown Blanchard. It was a wonderful meeting this year with Brother Johnny Gabbard of Bond, KY, the night speaker.

The Greg Jensen update from Mom, Barbara, city council women of Antioch, OK. Greg is still in ICU in Mercy Hospital and doing some better. But, still not out of the woods.

Old Eagle Eye saw Carl and Angie Pelfrey and Chloe, Davis and Diane Perry at Blanchard's camp meeting. Sandra Martin taking care of business at Papa's Trading Co, Mr. and Mrs. Heath Bray at Mazzio Country, Josh and Melissa Hunt at Blanford Camp Meeting and Johnny Hunt preaching the Saturday night youth service. Everybody else is hiding from the heat.

With things heating up, we bring the old Studebaker to the end of another road. Here's hoping you had a great Memorial Day as we march on to the 4th of July. Be safe don't take the water holes for granted they can turn deadly and this is be kind to "Jeffrey Hunt" week a.k.a. the Lone Ranger.

Now, all you dog lovers, bear with me. No threatening phone calls or moltavo cocktails aimed at the old Studebaker please. I am a number one dog lover myself as the lone resident residing in the little house on Lollar, I owned two dogs or vice-versa, named Abdul and Cher. As a boy, I made many tracks in those Wallville pastures, creeks, and hollers with that old black dog in tow, then there have been times I wondered if they weren't smarter than I gave them credit. You'll understand in the following weeks as we go down the Wallville Road.

Tales From Turkey

By: Amber Minson

This is the beach at Yumurtalik and in the background is part of the residential area in the small city

This is a shot of the castle that is about a quarter of a mile off the beach at Yumurtalik.

I don't know about Oklahoma, but here in Turkey the temperature has been climbing. We've had several days in a row of 100 plus degree weather. Normally, I would say, let's go to the pool or to the lake, but since we're so close to the Mediterranean Sea, I say let's go to the beach. So that's what we did last weekend; we went to the beach.

We didn't go to the beach at Kizkalesi like we did last time. It took us two and a half hours to get to Kizkalesi and this time we didn't feel like driving that far. So, this time we went to a beach in a small city called Yumurtalik. It only took us an hour to get to this beach, after you subtract the fifteen minutes we drove around lost in Ceyhan (Jee-hon).

Once we got to the beach we discovered that it was well worth the drive. It wasn't quite as nice as the beach at Kizkalesi, but it was still a really nice beach. We spread our blanket out under a short palm tree and relaxed. Once again, Sam really enjoyed the water, only this time it wasn't nearly as cold. Zach snorkeled again to see if he could find anything, but once again there was only sand and rocks. He was a little disappointed, but I think we're going to try one more beach before I leave next week to come home for a while.

Something that you all might find interesting is that there were some very distinguished visitors here on base last week. Several members of the U.S. Congress were here on Incirlik AB; also passing through here last week was General David Petraeus. I don't know why any of them were here, but I thought it was pretty neat.

As I mentioned earlier, Sam and I will be leaving next Thursday to come back to Oklahoma for about eight weeks. I'm really anxious to see everybody and spend time with my family. However, while I'm home I won't continue my column. I will, however, resume writing once I return to Turkey.

As always, thank you so much for reading! Be looking for my column to reappear in August. Have a safe and wonderful summer. I hope to see everyone soon! Until next time, God bless.

THANK YOU

Countywide Summer Missoula Production Set. Auditions for the summer production of the Missoula Children's Theatre will take place Monday, June 16 beginning at 9 a.m. at the Bosa Community Center in Pauls Valley. For the first time, any student residing in Garvin County may try out for a role in the two public performances scheduled for Friday, June 20.

Ryan Thompson, a junior at Little Axe High School, is busily finishing one of his last projects for the school year.

MATC Offers Training In Computer Service

Mid-America Area Technology Center is currently offering training, to students that live in your local community, in the computer service industry. This is a field that is growing very quickly and the job market is a wide open for trained technicians. Mid-America is prepared to put the certifications and the technical skills in your hand where you will be a competitive applicant in the job market. Former Computer Service Technology students are now employed at companies such as, DELL, starting salary approximately $15.00 per hour, Dish Network, VGT Industries, and Hobby Lobby as technical support technicians.

Students that desire to obtain training in Computer Service Technology may study the following ODCTE career majors. "PC Support Technician" or "Network PC Support Specialist" which involves computer repair, upgrades, troubleshooting hardware and software, operating systems, and networking fundamentals; or students may choose to study "Network Systems Technician" or "Cyber Security Professional (systems emphasis)" career majors consisting of IT support, and network administration, security specialist, and electronic forensics. In the final semester students are allowed to complete hours of training on the job.

Students are also prepared for nationally recognized CompTIA A+ and Network+ certifications which are required by most companies.

The instructors work integrally with the business and industry in our communities to build a positive work relationship with the student and employer. Once a student completes this program they are ready for gainful employment in the competitive computer service technology field doing something they enjoy while earning a great salary. If a student enters this program in the fall, and attends full time they can expect to be employable by the end of the spring semester.

Free tuition, in full-time programs, is offered to in-district students that are 21 years of age and younger, the cost for other students is $1.00 per clock-hour of training. In many cases, educational grants are available. In order to assist adult students with their desire for a new career, the Computer Service Technology program allows adult students to begin classes on any Monday and to work at their own pace.

Mid-America Technology Center's fall classes will begin August 14, 2008. Call Mid-America at 1-800-232-5580 and ask to speak to one of the counselors to enroll in the Computer Service Technology classes.

Lindsay AARP Chapter Holds Meeting

The Lindsay, OK AARP Chapter #2755 met May 19, 2008 at the Senior Citizen Nutrition Center at 310 W Choctaw at 3 p.m.

The meeting was called to order by president Carolyn Hutto. The invocation was given by Emery Scheer and the flag salute was led by Donna Hardin.

Those attending were B.J. Franklin, Bob Hutto, Carolyn Hutto, Barbara Elam, Mary Robertson, Donna Hardin, Nadine Bennett, Isabelle Alexander, Emery Scheer, Rosetta Clark, Mary Mae Owens, and Fannie Stansbury.

Speaker of the day was Jere Claunch, P.A. from Dr. Hines' office. He gave a talk on when to visit a doctor's office, things that should be asked, and things one should expect, and if certain things aren't answered, one should ask questions.

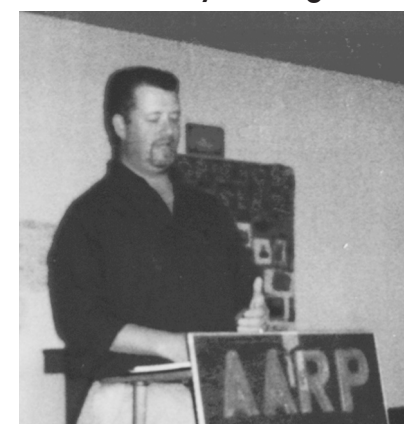

The minutes of the previous meetings were read by secretary Mary Robertson. The treasurer's report was given by treasurer Donna Hardin.

Emery Scheer gave a report on the safe driving course given May 17. Another school will be held in September.

The members will call to remind donaters that the
